CONSOLIDATED ACTION

ORDER GRANTING PARTIES' STIPULATION REGARDING SETTLEMENT CLASS DEFINITION
(ECF No. 250)

Action Filed: June 21, 2022

The Court has received and reviewed the Stipulation of Plaintiffs and Defendant American Honda Motor Co. Inc. seeking to clarify the definition of the settlement class that the Court conditionally certified in its Preliminary Approval Order (ECF No. 249).

Based on the Stipulation and good cause appearing, it is hereby ordered that the conditionally certified settlement class be defined as follows:

“The Settlement Class shall consist of all individuals or legal entities who own or owned, purchase(d) or lease(d) Class Vehicles in any of the fifty States and the District of Columbia. Excluded from the Class are (1) AHM, its related entities, parent companies, subsidiaries and affiliates, and their respective officers, directors, and employees; (2) insurers or financier of the Class Vehicles; (3) all persons and/or entities claiming to be subrogated to the rights of Class Members; (4) issuers or providers of extended vehicle warranties or extended service contracts; (5) individuals and/or entities who validly and timely opt-out of the Settlement; (6) individuals or businesses that have purchased Class Vehicles previously deemed a total loss (i.e. salvage) (subject to verification through Carfax or other means); (7) current and former owners of a Class Vehicle who previously have released all claims against AHM with respect to the issues raised in the Litigation; and (8) any judge to whom this matter is assigned, and his or her immediate family (spouse, domestic partner, or children).”
